NORTHLAND JOURNEYS

WHANGĀREI HEADS

Drivers Tip:
Many points of interest are located on the 'harbour side' of the road and are easier to access on your return journey.

Drivers Tip:
Keep an eye in the mirror and let the locals pass safely!

Did you know?
The Whangārei Harbour is over 23km long and home to a variety of fish, shellfish and bird species. The large tidal range means it's perfect for high tide swimming and low tide exploring.

Did you know?
Whangārei Heads is one of only five kiwi sanctuaries in Aotearoa New Zealand, and be aware that dogs are not permitted on any Department of Conservation (DOC) tracks. When in Whangārei Heads your dog should be on a lead at all times.

WHERE GIANTS GATHER

Journey through a grand landscape where giants surround you. Giants of geology, nature and history are gathered here, like the majestic creatures that inspired Ngati Wai to name this place Whangārei-te-rerenga-paraoa (the gathering place of whales).

Take the meandering road from Northland's largest city, all the way to the coast and the boundless Pacific Ocean beyond. Follow the great mass of water that ebbs and flows through the towering Whangārei Heads. Walk in the footsteps of those who carved history out of this colossal landscape, and create lasting memories of your own as you journey Where Giants Gather.

- 1 Town Basin Marina
Galleries, museums, cafes, shops and walks give you plenty of reasons to while away a few hours.
- 2 Hundertwasser Art Centre
Be sure to visit the Hundertwasser Art Centre with Wairau Māori Art Gallery in the vibrant Whangārei Town Basin. Explore the afforested rooftop and follow the sculpture trail along the Hātea Loop - Huarahi o te Whai.
- 3 Mt Parihaka
Walking tracks, mountain bike trails and sites of historical significance can be found on this iconic peak.
- 4 William Fraser Memorial Park
This giant park on Pohe Island is home to a huge range of activities for all ages, including a pump track, skate park, a camera obscura, and not to be missed, the giant destination playground.

- 5 Matakoho - Limestone Island
Just a short boat-ride or paddle from shore, this predator-free sanctuary is home to kiwi and other wildlife.
- 6 Whangārei Marine Reserve
Fish, shellfish and wading birds make their home here. Learn all about them from information boards along the shore.
- 7 Tamaterau Beach
Opposite the tennis courts, a sheltered beach offers clear water swimming in the shadow of a gigantic pōhutukawa tree.
- 8 Parua Bay Golf Club
At low tide you can walk around the beach to Motukiore Island and its historic pā site. Park on the roadside just past the golf club.
- 9 Harbour views
Take in immense views of Whangārei Harbour and the Bream Head ranges from this primo photo stop.
- 10 Parua Bay Tavern
Enjoy pub fare and cold beer, served with spectacular views from the private jetty of this historic tavern.
- 11 Parua Bay Cemetery
Easier to spot and access on your return journey, this historic graveyard is said to date back to 1886.
- 12 Parua Bay Shops
A good opportunity to stock up on essentials and grab a coffee. The well stocked gas station also offers LPG and dive tank fills.
- 13 McLeod Bay Historical Early Settlers Cemetery
Park and walk around the beach at low tide. This cemetery houses the graves of many early settlers.
- 14 McLeod Bay
Wet a line from the wharf on Stuart Road, or simply stop and watch the oystercatchers from the picnic and playground area.

- 15 McLeod Bay Historical Church
Built by Scottish settlers, this tiny church has huge historical significance, being one of the oldest Presbyterian churches in NZ.
- 16 The Deck Café
Enjoy a coffee or refreshing cold drink as you take in expansive views of the harbour and the craggy rock fingers of Mount Manaia above.
- 17 Reotahi
Skirting the Reotahi Marine Reserve, this area is home to numerous short walks making up the Reotahi Coastal Walkway. From Tiller Park ascend the steep track up the Mount Aubrey walkway to a series of spectacular lookouts!
- 18 Mt Manaia
Climb to near the top of sacred Mt Manaia and you'll be rewarded with the best views in the area. Please keep to the tracks as this unique maunga is important to many iwi, hapu and local folk.
- 19 Taurikura
Take a stroll along the natural volcanic causeway, then cool off with a swim.
- 20 Urquharts Bay
Historic sites from Māori and European cultures await you on the Busby Head and Smugglers Bay walking tracks, along with great swimming, snorkelling, diving and fishing.
- 21 Ocean Beach
You've made it to the Pacific Ocean! Enjoy a dip or climb a sand dune for more amazing views. Surf life saving patrols throughout summer.

- 22 Pukaki Memorial
Read about this fascinating true story at the lookout overlooking the beautiful Ocean Beach.
- 23 Bream Head (Te Whara) Scenic Reserve
A place of outstanding natural heritage, flora and fauna and community involvement. Seasoned hikers can take the 3-hour return to Peach Cove Track or tackle the 5-6 hour one-way Te Whara Track.

To Pātāua South

- 24 Taiharuru Estuary
A great spot for birdwatching, and swimming at high tide.
- 25 Frogtown Beach
This family-friendly beach is well known for surfing and boogie boarding. The local campground store is open in summer.
- 26 Pātāua Footbridge
Join the local kids as they leap from the bridge into the river at high tide, or enjoy the sheltered swimming and picnic area.

To McGregors Bay

- 27 McGregors Bay
This stunning crescent moon bay is an idyllic spot for swimming and exploring.

Must Do's

Walk:

From a short stroll around one of Whangārei's many walking trails, to a herculean ascent of the magnificent Mount Manaia, you'll be surrounded by choices for wonderful walks.

Swim:

Join the locals and enjoy a refreshing swim at one of the many sheltered and ocean beaches along the Whangārei Heads coastline. Or take a giant leap from the bridge at Pātāua - if you dare!

Photo:

It's easy to imagine how early explorers and settlers must have felt when you see the towering peaks of Whangārei Heads looming large over the glistening harbour. Climb to the top and stand on the shoulders of giants - you'll be rewarded with unrivaled views of the harbour, Bream Bay and beyond.

Relax:

Stop for an ice cream or classic fish and chips from one of the inviting cafes or the tavern along the way. Or wet a line and try to catch a monster of your own - there are plenty of wharfs where locals and visitors alike gather to go fishing.
